

LONDON

City Guide

ARENA
INTERNATIONAL EVENTS GROUP

Where to eat

- - - - X

The Duck & Waffle

The Duck & Waffle is located on the 40th floor of the Heron Tower, making it the highest restaurant in the U.K. Focusing on true British and European ingredients, the restaurant caters to the busy London life, serving food around the clock.

<https://duckandwaffle.com/>

Shaka Zulu

Shaka Zulu is London's largest South African restaurant spread over 27,000 sq ft in the Stables Market, Camden. The stunning venue not only brings amazing food, but is also one of London's most successful clubs during the weekend.

<http://www.shaka-zulu.com/>

Where to drink

- - - - X

OXO Tower

Situated on the 8th floor of the OXO Tower, the space is divided into two halves, with a bar and brasserie, linked by a spectacular 250 ft terrace offering amazing views of the London skyline.

<http://www.harveynichols.com/restaurant/the-oxo-tower/>

Where to see

- - - - X

Borough Market

Open Monday to Saturday, Borough Market celebrates 1000 years in Southwark, bringing the best of British and international foods with over 100 stalls.

<http://boroughmarket.org.uk/>

Richmond Park

Rent a “Boris bike” and cycle to one of London’s parks. Richmond Park is the largest of the 8 Royal Parks, situated just south of the River. The park is a National Nature Reserve, known for the herds of beautiful Red and Fallow deer.

<https://tfl.gov.uk/modes/cycling/santander-cycles>

