

BERGEN CITY GUIDE

BERGEN

Renowned for the seven neighbouring mountains and some of the world's most beautifully preserved wooden houses, the beguiling city of Bergen has developed into Norway's second largest city since it was founded over 900 years ago. The vibrant city brings different dimensions of culture into one, from museums to art galleries, dining and cultural events, be prepared to be inspired.

What to see

- ★ Bryggen Hanseatic Wharf - The Historic Harbour district has played an important part in the past, acting as part of the Hanseatic leagues trading empire between the 14th - 16th century; it is now chock full of restaurants, studios and boutique shops, waiting to be explored by visitors.
- ★ Market Square - Located at the southeast end of the city's main harbour, the bustling atmosphere derived from the 700 year old fish marketing has continued to the present. Indulge yourself in traditional Norwegian market place atmosphere.
- ★ Grieg Hall - Fan of daring architecture? The Grieg Hall won't disappoint.
- ★ Bergenhus Fortress - Since the 16th century, the old Bergenhus Fortress has dominated the entrance to Bergen's harbour and remains one of the most remarkable establishment in Scandinavia.
- ★ Fantoft Stavkirke - This historical piece of architecture was originally built in Fortun in 1150. During the 1800s, the magnificent structure was threatened by demolition, but was bailed and moved to Fantof. Later in the 20th century, the building was destroyed by arson and was later rebuilt to what it is today.
- ★ The most beautiful train ride - Enjoy one of the most spectacular views at 1222 metres above sea level. The award winning Bergensbanen has been named the World's most beautiful train ride several times.

Where to eat/drink

- ★ Hanne På Høyden - Fancy something organic? This is the place for you! Sourced from local suppliers just the other side of the seven mountains, the modern cuisine offered guarantees to be fresh and traditional.
- ★ Enhjørningen - The perfect match for seafood lovers, the seafood heavy menu will have fish lovers struggle for choice. The ambience driven by its antique style interior and furniture will evoke the atmosphere of a bygone era.
- ★ To Kokker - After strolling down a back alley and up a flight of stairs, you will arrive to To Kokker. We assure you the detour is worth it! Make sure you try their exquisite elk carpaccio or mussel soup, and indulge in the oven baked cod or turbot with nut butter.
- ★ Krok og Krinkel Bokcafé - Enter into the world of relaxation and delight. Situated along a narrow, quiet cobblestone street, the cafe offers an incredible environment to digest the glamour of Bergen.
- ★ Henrik Øl & Vinstove - Fancy a Norwegian or Scandinavian craft beer? Henrik offers a selection of over 50 craft beers on tap and if you don't know what to choose from, a prompt and friendly service is there to help, offering an extensive knowledge of the pub's beers.

We look forward to welcoming you in Bergen

ARENA
INTERNATIONAL EVENTS GROUP